It's a fine chance to prove whether Barre is your town or whether you just live here.

A Boston man came up to Vermont and discovered a new comet. You can find most anything in Vermont.

With Archduke Joseph removed from office, Hungary may again begin to make progress toward a democratic peace.
Archduke Joseph was a stumbling-block.

A judge in Massachusetts has decided that it is legal to play golf on Sunday if the golfers do not keep the score. It is a poor golfer who isn't able to keep the score in his head.

In hauling foodstuff out of storage, the government will need to exercise wise discrimination between stuff that actually is hoarded and stuff which is stored in the normal process of preparation for the winter season. Not all foodstuff to be found in storage during the next few weeks will necessarily be hoarded products.

INVEST YOUR MONEY IN A HOME
INDUSTRY—BOOST BARRE.

The canvass for the sale of preferred stock in the Peerless Knitting Mills Co. for the purpose of bringing a part of the manufacturing business of that concern to Barre is now on in good earnest, and it is expected that there will be hearty reception to the members of the canvassing committees who are going about the work just as wholeheartedly and as public-spiritedly as did the canvassers in the various war drives of the last few years. These canvassers have no axe to grind; they get nothing for their services as canvassers; they are acting merely because of their confidence in the project and because of their desire to do something for the benefit of Barre. So don't treat them as canvassers for some projects are treated, for they have a business proposition to present which has been approved by a large majority of the hard-headed business men of this and other communities who have considered the matter.

It is time for Barre to be branching out in industry. We have, of course, one of the finest industries in the world. But we should not be content to let well enough alone and to stand idly by and let a good chance to expand pass us by.
Here is an opportunity to keep families in Barre and to encourage other families to come into Barre from a wide territory, for, if the business expands as it is expected to expand and as the market for the goods seems to indicate, there will be a considerable demand for women and girls to operate the machines and for some men to carry on parts of the manufacturing work. It is planned in due time to increase the working force of the Barre plant so that two hundred persons will be employed in turning out the various kinds of Peerless underwear. A concern employing two hundred persons under good working conditions in a modern, fire-proof factory building is something which we must not let get by us.

To get the business we must each subscribe, and subscribe as much as possible, in this preferred stock, a stock, by the way, which is going to pay dividends from the time of the initial payment for construction of the Barre factory. If the entire payment is made at once, dividends will be paid on the entire stock certificate; if not, then on such percentage as is paid by the subscriber. It should be borne in mind, too, that subscriptions will not be called until the amount necessary to finance the project is assured; and when that amount is assured there will be prompt steps to get the Barre factory into working order. It is the purpose of the Peerless Co. to expand its manufacturing business somewhere. It must be in Barre.

Where We Stand

This bank believes the efforts of the Board of Trade to secure the location of the Peerless Knitting Mill plant in Barre are worthy of encouragement.

To this end we will loan on the preferred stock together with the common stock at the rate of one to five, as collateral security at least 60 per cent. of the par value of the preferred. This is a general proposition. Of course, if a man had other property and his credit was well established anyway, we would probably loan in excess of this amount. This would depend on the case at hand.

We believe sincerely in the future of our city but we also believe that community development carries with it community effort and that anything worth having is worth working for.

We are for Barre, first, last, and all the time and are always ready to lend any reasonable assistance in the support of any worthy local enterprise.

We realize that our success as an institution depends upon the welfare of the citizens of our city; our interests are interwoven and what helps Barre helps us and we deeply sense the obligation which we owe to this city.

SO WE REPEAT: FORWARD TOGETHER.

The Labor Day outing means a picnic. A picnic calls for est in quality; these are two inducements for their purchase.
